From the Other Side inaugurates SOHO20 Gallery's move to a new space in Chelsea, presenting the opportunity to revel in a multiplicity of ideas and media that are gathered in the newly inhabited location. Hollow mannequins, funerary urns, cow manure, autumn ponds, rainbows, soldiers, futuristic industrial landscapes, drawing experiments, and an imaginary encounter between literary figures all invite the viewer to interpret the artists' work, not necessarily through a common narrative, but rather by unraveling the clustered connections in the works' content. Matters of life and death, environmental concerns, social commentary as well as formal and conceptual experiments all comingle in a dynamic mix of new works.

Artists include Elizabeth Bisbing, Darla Bjork, Diane Churchill, Martie Edelheit, Anne Elliott, Lisa Fischetti, Susan Hockaday, Lucy Hodgson, Eve Ingalls, Shirin Kazemi, Coeleen Kiebert, Inhye Lee, Desiree Navab, Petra Nimitz, Debbie Rasiel, Mariangeles Soto-Diaz, Kathy Stark and Ann Young.

SOHO20 Gallery, founded in 1973, is a non-profit, artist-run organization that endorses and exhibits the work of women artists, helping to bridge the current gender gap present in commercial galleries. In pursuing these goals, SOHO20 incorporates the work of underrepresented women artists into the field of contemporary art.
